

About Me

Hi I'm Kristen Patterson. I've been a Realtor in AZ since 2020. My husband of 27 years and I have 6 kids that I have homeschooled. We love Jesus and are involved in our church as well as our kids' Christian Co op. I have a bachelors degree in Liberal Studies from Cal State University on a teaching track. My goal was to be a school teacher but I decided that wasn't the route I wanted to go for our kids once I had some experience in the school system. I have been so blessed getting to be home with my kids educating them. I do find so much joy in educating that it has carried over into my other passion, real estate. Buying or selling your home can be one of the biggest financial transactions you'll make in life and it is so personal. I always feel so honored to be able to walk alongside my clients and help guide through the process. I would love to help you as well.
